What Steps Do You Take to Protect Personal Information About Me?

Pryisma Lending Group, LLC. is strongly committed to protecting your personal information against unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Consequently we restrict access to the information obtained from our web site and web pages to our employees, agents and contractors who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with Federal and State Regulation designed to protect your personal information. Employees, agents and contractors who have access to this information are bound by law and policy to follow appropriate procedures in connection with any disclosure of personal information. We conduct multiple layered due diligence, extensive background check and ongoing verification in the selection and retention of service providers.

In addition, we utilize procedures and safeguards to protect the integrity of our information technology resources, including but not limited to authentication, monitoring, auditing, encryption, password and physical security. For example, we utilize state of the art software programs to monitor unauthorized attempts to upload, modify or otherwise access our website. These software programs include protections such as full time monitoring of protection of information from fraud, theft or abuse, intrusion detection safeguards and protection; data protection, spam protection and detection and elimination of spyware, Trojans, adware and other malicious threats. Our auditing software is implemented to identify and assess risks to private customer and company information, both on our server and on our website. Software programs are updated as stronger versions and patches become available. Data is encrypted on our server to prevent unauthorized access to personal information on laptops or other portable electronic devices. These security precautions are a part of our overall commitment to the protection of your personal information when you visit our website.

Will You Make Changes to this Online Privacy and Safeguard Policy?

Our Privacy Compliance Officer Luiz Serva is responsible for the periodic review and update to our Online Privacy and Safeguard Policy. We reserve the right to alter this privacy policy at our discretion, but it is our policy to do so at least annually. Any changes to this policy will be posted on our website. Last policy review: April 2, 2014.
